Experiments in the line of rain-making have recently been maste at Bezwada, in the Madras (India) presidency, where the scardiy of water is having a very serious affect on crops. The result, however, was not encouraging. Twenty bags, each containing ten pounds of roburite, were exploded at an altitude of 600 feet. The concussions caused by the explosions were terrific, but not a drop of rain followed, and the experimenters gave up their task as an uter failure.

BRIDE OF MR. R. CARTER SCOTT.

Richmond society sacrificed one of her fairest daughters at the altar of Hymen yesterday afternoon, when Miss Lucy Mayo Blair, a leading belle of this city, became the bride of Mr. Richard Carter

The ceremony took place at St. Paul's shurch at 5 o'clock, and the wedding was one of the most fashionable which has occurred here this season.

The main auditorium and galleries of the handsome edifice were crowded with friends and acquaintances of the couple, and the assembly included the clis of the city's higher circles.

Governor McKinney and General Joseph R. Anderson were among those present. The main aisle of the church was covered with white cloth. The chancel and altar

Wealth's Attoriery.

The testimony developed that Berkle had been married three times and that wives Nos. I and 3 are still living, both of whom were in courtierable story and that of his first wife differed but slightly. He married her in New York about twenty years ago. She was, he said, always creating a disturbance, so that they could not live peacefully righter and she finally expressed a desire to ration to Germany. He sent her, according to his story, to his father's home at Welburg, and a little later he himself went over on account of the illness of one of his children. He subsequently returned to New York and in a few years married sgain. Berkle then moved to Richmond with wife No. 2, who lived with him until about two years ago, when she died and he afterward wedded a widow from Baltimore, Mrs. Annie Mary Weimer.

The case is somewhat romantic in its nature and the statement of Mrs. Berkle No. 1—which upon objection by counsel was decided to be inadmissable as evidence—strongly appeals to the sympathy of those who have head flor story.
